WELCOME TO FORT BRAGG, NORTH CAROLINA
"Home of the Airborne"

For over half a century, first as a camp and later as a post, Fort Bragg has had a proud heritage as home of the nation's finest fighting forces. As one of the largest military complexes in the world, Fort Bragg is home of the Army's only airborne corps and airborne division, the elite "Green Berets", and the Army's largest support command.

Although the units and men and women here have widely different missions and jobs, they are here for one purpose -- to be ready to defend the nation. Infantry - men, mechanics, pilots, cooks, -- they are all on the move with the modern Army at Fort Bragg.

Much like a large city, Fort Bragg has its own supermarkets, shopping malls, medical facilities, neighborhoods, and churches. The important thing to remember is, not only are all of these things available, but the people here really want to serve you.

If you like sports and recreation, you're in a great place. Almost every type of recreation and athletics is available. Golf courses, pools, lakes, bowling lanes, hunting fields, craft shops, and much more are all around you.

The Atlantic to the East, or the Smokies to the West combines to offer total variety for the traveler. There is plenty to see and do on a short weekend or a month's leave -- in North Carolina.

So welcome to Fort Bragg -- may your stay be enjoyable and your tour of duty professionally rewarding. ANSWERS UNLIMITED is an informational booklet published since 1975. It is compiled and prepared by Army Community Service in the interest of all Fort Bragg soldiers, family members, civilian employees and community members. The Army Community Service staff and Volunteer Corps would like to thank all individuals who contributed to this issue.
