

"Warning to all travelers with pets".

Authorities were investigating the deaths of seven dogs after flight to Chicago. Embargos have been implemented by some carriers due to temperatures that ensure animals are not exposed to extreme heat or cold when traveling between terminal and aircraft, including on an aircraft awaiting departure. We are advising our customers traveling with pets to contact the airlines or visit their website for detailed policies regarding the acceptance of animals.