

Growth and Development (Day One)

Who's Here

Water Quality—Fayetteville Region
Commerce—Fayetteville Region
Master Planning—Fort Bragg
Water Management—Fort Bragg
USFWS—Fayetteville Region
Planning Director—Cumberland County
Community Development—Cumberland County
Planning Department—Cumberland County
Planning Director—Hope Mills
Council of Government—Triangle
Architect—Biobased Industry
Heritage Association—Cumberland County
Council of Government—Cumberland, Sampson, Harnett Counties
Economic Development—Hoke County
Trainer—Fort Bragg—Alternative Fueled Vehicles

Sandhills Totally Sustainable

Progress energy ends service to Sandhills region “no need”
Last hog lagoon converted to fishpond
Strong economy building
Sandhills construction standard: 100 percent platinum
SH reaches zero waste goal

USA Today—“The Sandhills Has It All!!”

The Mecca for job seekers and retirees

Twenty-Year Partnership Yields Results!

Economy

Clean Industry attracts workers to area
Working forests and farms preserved

Cultural

Heritage of area preserved

Environment

Waste reduction disposal rate 95 percent

Pollution free region wide mass transit

Leisure

Green space/trail system benefits residents and wildlife

Environmentally friendly world-class golf courses and equestrian events

Pristine lakes and abundant water quality

ATV vehicles encouraged

Illegal burning down to zero—air quality the best in the state

Growth Level

1. Sandhills “cradle to cradle” goal reached through 100 percent commitment
2. CNN global intergalactic
3. Driving first biodiesel
 - Zero toxics goal reached
 - Drinking water straight from streams
 - Healthy wildlife habitats improved
 - Delicious organic wildlife foods available

“Paradise found”...Highest levels of health and productivity.

Living “Green” in the Sandhills

“Rest of U.S. “Green” with envy”

- Working and efficient mass transit
- Endangered species recovery
- Aquifers and capacity
- DENR water quality standards exceeded

- 100 percent alternative energy
- Green/sustainable industry and commerce
- Progressive planning and smart growth

Development and Growth

- A. Real Estate Development
- B. Land Use (Planning and Zoning)
- C. Infrastructure
- D. Transportation